

Addictions Certificate Applications Now Available!

Bridgewater State University School of Social Work is now accepting applications for its Fall 2014 post-Master's certificate program focusing on addictions with special emphasis on substances and additional segments on gambling, internet and food.

The certificate program will offer 30 Continuing Education Credits for Social Work.

Please complete your application here. In addition, submit a statement of purpose/learning goals, and a résumé to Mara at mara.acegreen@bridgew.edu to complete your application.

Program Dates: 9 Tuesdays and 1 Monday from 6:00-9:00 p.m. October 7-December 16
(Dates are October 7, 14, 21, 27, November 4, 18, 25, and December 2, 9 and 16)

Location: Bridgewater State University

Tuition: $1100 plus a $30 non-refundable application fee

Details available at professional education program link at <http://microsites.bridgew.edu/socialwork>

Elizabeth Souffront, PhD has worked for over 25 years in the field of addictions. Her extensive experience includes private practice and mental health center-based clinical work in Atlantic City and communities across eastern Massachusetts. She served as the Drug Abuse Program Coordinator for the Federal Correctional Institution at Fort Dix and Clinical Director at St. Francis House and Arbour Counseling Services. Her experience includes extensive supervision of master and doctoral-level social work and psychology students and staff. Dr. Souffront holds degrees from the University of Puerto Rico and Temple University and has provided addictions treatment in both Spanish and English. Dr. Souffront currently has a private practice and consults to the Latin American Health Institute.